CHICAGO, Aug. 24—After losing three out of four games in St. Louis, the rough tiders returned home to-day and bost to the Brooklyns. The game was too one-slied to prove interesting, as the local signregation were outplayed and out-generalled from start to finish. Cogan, the old Newark twirler, did the Litching for Chicago, and did it very badly. In the first inning he gave four bases on balls, and this wildness, coupled with two singles. Everett's errors and Jennings's beautiful three-bagger, yielded Hanion's men six runs. After that the rough riders played "dead ball" and apparently made no effort to cut down the visitors long lead.

Kennedy was in the box for Brooklyn and although he was hit hard at times the big fellow managed to keep the Chicago hits well acattered. Furthermore he was backed up in aimost faultless style, the fielding of Jennings, Tom Daly, Jones and Casey being simply superb. Keeler strained his right log in the second inning and was forced to retire, Anderson taking his place in right field.

From a Chicago point of view the redeeming features of an altogether unsatisfactory exhibition were the batting of Kyan and Mertes and the catching of Chance. BROOKLYN, 9; CHICAGO, 3. the catching of Chance.

Capt. Bill Everett gave his daily exhibition of senseless kicking and in the ninth inning was put out of the game by Umpire Connolly. The umpiring of Snyder and Connolly was of a high order. If dame rumor is correct there The umpiring of Snyder and Connolly was of a high order. If dame rumor is correct there will be a shake-up on the Chicago team before the end of the week as Fresident Hort makes to secret of his disattisfaction with the recent work of the team. LOUISVILLE, Aug. 24—Darkness prevented the playing out of a hotly contested game with the Orioles. Both sides scored two runs in the tenth inning, the latter part of which was played in such darkness as to make fielding almost a matter of guess work. Baseball Notes.

When the Baitmores visit St. Louis, La-chance and Tebeau are expected to settle their differences, which began when Patsy was in-vited by the big Franchman to come under the grand stand in Baitmore recently. Te-beau rejused to comply with the request but said "Wait until I get you in St. Louis". The Louisville Cub will build a new grand The Louisville Club will build a new grand stand, costing $8,000, and seating 10,000 persons. Somebody hinted to Dreyfuss the other day that his old grand stand might have been burned by the magnates who cut his Sunday games out of the schedule. "Not at all!" was the rejoinder. "They are all my friends now!" the rejoinder. "They are all my friends now!"
Of last year's crack Baltimore team, McGraw still has Robinson, Nops, Kitson, Holmes, Brodie and De Montreville, which is no wonder why the Orioles stand so well in the race. Lachance, Sheckard, Kister, McGinnity, Howell, McKenna and "Broadway" Smith, all former Brooklyn players, have helped out wonderfully, too.

It is said that "Dummy" How of Louisville, has picked up enough baseball phraseology to make himself understood. In a recent game he surprised Fred Clarke by running after a long drive, at the same time crying "Itake it! I take it!" Hoy, by the way, is playing ball as well as ever, despite his dozen years in the League's service.

For steady, brilliant playing, day in and day out, Willie Keeler is entitled to the paim above all other performers. Keeler is the fastest man between home and firsthase, the best right-fielder in the country, and may again lead the League in batting, when the schedule has been finished. A winning ball player and a hard loser, Keeler is a gentleman at all times and a credit to both the Brookirn Club and the National League.

For some time there has been considerable rivalry between employees of the Canal street and Chambers street stores of Hackett, Carhurt & Co, as to which store had the best basebil team. To settle all disputes it was finally decided that each store select its best nine, and play for the championship. The game will be played at Prospect Park, Brookin, to-morrow afternoon, and will be in the nature of an outing for both stores, as the teams and their admirers will journey to the grounds in tally-hoes and after the game there will be refreshments.

NEWS OF THE WHEELMEN. SOME WITHDRAWALS FROM THE CYCLE TRUST ANNOUNCED.

mateur Championships of the N. C. A. Be gin at Berkeley Oval To-day and There Will Be Two Afternoons and an Even ing of Sports-Collett and Hausman Part, The combine of ferty or more bleyele manufacturing firms with a capital of $40,000,000, seems to be attended with more difficulty than most trade amalgamations. The announcement of the formation of the so-called "trust" has been met with long and loud pronunciamentos of opposition both East and West. The most sensational of them has just been made public. This is the announcement by the Eagle Bicycle Manufacturing Company. of Torrington, Conn., that it has withdrawn from the combine and will "go it alone," while others have declared that they were not in and would remain out. This is the first that has been heard of any company withdrawing. There seems to be a great deal of play incidental to the solid work of the organization and it has been difficult to size up the "bluff" players. The entire trade still seems to be guesting as to what concerns will eventually be in and which companies on the outside of the trust. The defiance of some firms is thought to be possibly only a play for better terms, while that of others is taken seriously.

This afternoon and evening and to-morrow afternoon the erack amateurs enlisted with the N. C. A., which strangely enough, means a comparatively higher average of talent than when the professional stars are mentioned, will race for the national cham pionships at all the various distances at Berkeley Oval. The men have been training at the track for a week past and some peculiar facts concerning speed have been developed. George Collett seems to be beating Wahrenerger about as he pleases, while Eramer, the A. W. champlon of 1808, is not showa loser. One of the most interesting situations. among the seekers after medals developed yesterday when the partners of several years. Collect and Haussian, refused to speak, and declined to appear before the photographer on the track at the same time. These men are club mates, and have been regarded as about the faste stamateur tandem team in the country, but for some reason they have "split." Hausman now has Rutzas his tandern mats, while Collect has thed up with Wahrenberger. The feeling between the two pairs is hitter and they are looked to for some great range when they meet in a tandem race. BACING.

SARATOGA, Aug. 24.—The Pepper Stakes for wo-year-olds with a value of $3,000 was the feature of the day's card this afternoon. There were several bad features to the race. In the first place the Association announced Mesmerist as a probable starter when it was aware of the fact that he had left for Sheepshead Bay with the rest of the Bromley stable yesterday. He was not scratched until shortly before the jockeys were making ready for the race. Maribert ruled a strong favorite, owing to his victory in the Grand Union stakes, with Waring a well backed second choice. Whatever chance Maribert had was ruined by Starter Byrnes, who sent the field away with Maribert just as good as left at the post. Mr. Jersey and Waring went off several lengths in front and running when the flag fell, and the others could never reach them, so that they had the race between them all the way. Waring led to the stretch where Mr. Jersey passed him and won eleverly by a short head. After weighing out Maher claimed that Mr. Jorsey had fouled Waring making the turn into the stretch, but as the stewards did not think in that way, they allowed the horses to be placed as they finished. Rockton, a possible Futurity candillate from the stable of S. Sanford & Bons, was backed from 7 to 5 to 4 to 5, to win the opening race for maiden two-year-olds. He ran very green in the first part of the race, although he closed strong and finished a finir fourth. He does not seem to have a chance with the Futurity horses, unless he can perform better than he did to day. Kickumbob, at 5 to 1, who on form should have been the favorite, who the race in a hard drive from Joe Medice, who was much the best horse, but swerved badly from the head of the straich home.

Leando and Country Danes carried all the money in the second, and those who bet on Leando cashed as he went to the front at the end won easily by a neck, Compensation, Diminutive, Country Danes and Galahad, the other starters, finishing noses anaart in the order named. The Beef and Beans delegation got all the money in the third race on Mechanus, He was the second choice in the betting, and going to the front right after the flag fell, stayed there to the finish, where he won, ridden out by three harts of a length from the star of Bethlebern.

Maurice was an equal favorite with Miss Patron over the fleid of twelve burses that run in the last. They were a very bail lot, and it was over half an hour before Starter Byrnes could get them away. Red Spider ed to the stretch, where Lucky Star and Miss Fatro. When the last of the first summary:

MR. WHITNEY'S NEW PURCHASE.

Will Build Stubles, a Training Track and House for Himself on the Land. William C. Whitney has purchased between sixty and seventy scres of land or, Garretson's Creek, next to the Coney Island Jockey Club, in the Twenty-first ward of Branklyn, where he intends shortly to build stables and a training track. The sale was completed in the Waldorf-Astoria on Wednesday evening and the purchase price was $105,000. About forty acres of the tract is marsh and the remainder is of a sandy soil and hilly. Mr. Whitney said he had no intention of building a race track there. Beside the fact that he did not purchase the land for the fact that he did not purchase the land for that purpose, he said the place was unsulted for either a mile or half-mile track. His sole reason in purchasing the tract, he said, was for the purpose of establishing training quarters for his horses. He said he was extremely fond of horses and it was his desire to obtain the best possible facilities for training and improving his stock. He considers that under proper management he can establish an ideal training quarters on his now purchase.

tablish an ideal training quarters on his new purchase.

Mr. Whitney said he considered the place particularly adapted for training purposes and that the atmosphere in that locality was well suited for a training ground. Within the next few months it is his intention to build a training track, erect stables, houses for his help, and also to build a residence for himself where he can live when he feels so inclined and also where he can entertain his friends. The stables and track will be for Mr. Whitney's private use. He knew nothing concerning the report that August Belmont and James R. Keene contemplated establishing stables adjoining his site.

Mr. Whitney's purchase comprises all the land east of Ocean avenue to Garretson's And adjoining his site.

Mr. Whitney's purchase comprises all the land east of Ocean avenue to Garretson's Creek lying south of Gravesond Neck road and north of Jerome avenue and adjoins the lands owned by the Coney Island Jockey Club.

TROTTING AND PACING.

Judges at Goshen. GOSHEN, Aug. 24.-There was fine sport at the Goshen track to-day. The condi-

the Goshen track to-day. The conditions were perfect and the attendance was 0,200. There was some disastisfection with the decisions of the indiges in the fifth heat of the 2:14 pace. From the grandstand it looked as though a dead heat would be a liberal award to him, but the heat and race were given to Bilver Maker. Howell, who drove U. S. Bond, made a pretty struggle for it, and had the crowd with him, but Quinton sent Bilver Maker to the front with a rush and, according to the judges, was lirst under the wire.

It took five heats to decide this race, and the finishes were all of the very exciting kind. U. S. Bond was a favorite from start to finish.

The 2:20 class for trotters was apilt up even more than the preceding race. Six heats were necessary to decide it, and a dark horse captured the last three. It was the usual case of surprise. Baron H. played the waiting game with success and did not fall to respond at the proper time. E. H. Harriman's Rival won the first two beats in the 2:20 class, lowering his record to accomplish this feat.

The 2:13 class trotting fell to Woodford C. in three atraight heats. He was hard pushed in each of them. Summary:
